Once-in-a-generation opportunity to own a home in one of the world's most famous national parks. Welcome to Banff, the most beautiful place in Canada to live, work, and play! A luxurious mountain retreat boasting views of Cascade Mountain and only a 5-minute walk from the iconic Fairmont Banff Springs Hotel and town centre. Located on a quiet cul-de-sac on exclusive Lougheed Circle, this 5,600-sq-ft, 4-bedroom home sits on .3 acres and impresses at first glance with a natural river-rock exterior, heated drive way, mature trees, and meticulous landscaping. Artfully designed with European flair, the interior boasts site-finished maple floors, custom spiral stair/wrought iron railing, exquisite mouldings and millwork, river-rock feature walls, sophisticated hardware, Kallista fixtures, five fireplaces, granite countertops, designer lighting, wall treatments, and user-friendly window coverings. Designed for family and entertaining, this home boasts a cozy living room with gas fireplace, formal dining room for those special occasions, chef's kitchen complete with top-of-line stainless steel Miele and Wolf appliances and a breakfast nook with balcony access where one can enjoy morning coffee with a mountain view. On the main floor, you will also find the luxuriously appointed master retreat with fireplace, dressing room, spa-like ensuite and clawfoot tub. An library/den completes the main floor. Upstairs, you are greeted by an open landing with an additional bedroom and loft space for what could be a gym or office. The walkout lower level offers two more bedrooms with a shared ensuite, steam room, sauna, bar, cedar closet, and family room with fireplace that leads out to a year-round breeze room. Only 1.5 hours from Calgary, Banff offers not only a spectacular location but unrivalled outdoor recreational opportunities, and great food and shopping in the heart of the world's most incredible landscape.
