*Open house Sunday June 22 11-1pm*This beautiful well maintained 2-storey home located on a quiet cul-de-sac offers over 3,000 sqft of living space and strong value for the family buyer. As you walk into the main floor you are greeted with rich hardwood floor, a cozy den that could be a great home office. This home's main feature is the soaring vaulted ceiling in the large living room, a gas fire place, 9 feet ceiling through out of the rest of the main floor and upgraded with 8 feet doors, and beautiful windows to allow the sunshine in. The open plan kitchen has quartz countertop, a corner pantry, a large breakfast bar, a dining nook, and plenty of storage space with newer SS appliances. In your large master bedroom suite, the spa-like ensuite is complete with double sinks, quartz tops, corner tub, and walk-in closet. There are other two good size bedrooms, a 3-piece bath, and a convenient flex area. The professionally finished basement has a great layout that could fit a rec room, hobby area, or workout space. The 4th bedroom is a good size and steps away from the 4-piece bathroom with ceramic floors, upgraded lighting, and ample storage. The fully fenced backyard has plenty of seating areas, with a fire pit, deck for BBQs and other gardening opportunities. The property is right down the street from walking trails and a ravine area. The remaining features of the home are a large laundry area, 2-piece main floor bath, and the attached double garage. You will find award-winning schools, shopping/dining, public transit in the area, and just a short drive out of town. This is the one house you do not want to miss!
